FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

A2LA Offers ISO 15189 Medical Laboratory Accreditation Class in Dallas, TX – September 24-25, 2012

June 8, 2012, Frederick, MD – A2LA’s “ISO 15189 and Accreditation” course will be offered in Dallas, TX on September 24-25, 2012. This course will use lecture, discussion and interactive exercises to assist you in understanding the benefits of the ISO 15189 standard. Through the implementation of ISO 15189, you will be able to use a systems view of quality management to better design and implement your laboratory functions, design a total laboratory process that addresses the principles of quality medical laboratory services, and implement pre-examination, examination and post-examination processes essential to patient care, specific to your laboratory.

The course will be held at the Sheraton Dallas. The cost of the course is $745.00 for A2LA members and $795.00 for non-members. For more information and to register, please visit http://www.a2la.org/training/iso15189.cfm?private=no.

ABOUT A2LA:

The American Association for Laboratory Accreditation (A2LA) is a nonprofit, non-governmental, public service, membership society. A2LA provides comprehensive services in laboratory accreditation and laboratory-related training. Services are available to any type of organization, be it private or government. Medical laboratory accreditation is based on internationally accepted criteria for competence (ISO 15189:2007). A2LA also offers programs for accreditation of laboratories to ISO/IEC 17025:2005 and accreditation of inspection bodies, proficiency testing providers, reference material producers and product certification bodies to relevant ISO standards.
